Greetings Guild Members

Well we got the new year started with a fortunate path in which to follow. The board meeting was long and productive as many upcoming ones will be. We have confirmed a new schedule for our gallery to be open. It will be Wednesday through Saturday from 12:00 to 4:00pm (or by appointment) or unless otherwise stated for our upcoming events such as the Bank of Idaho and Helen Aupperle shows.

If anyone is willing to volunteer, docent or just come down to the Guild to see what's happening your presence will be greatly appreciated as well as your beauty, charisma, and laughter being much appreciated by anyone else who has volunteered their time.

Rehle has a class lined up for February 11th. It will be taught by Ramona Horton on domestic animal portraits. Make sure you get hold of Rehle if you would like to be involved, the cost will be $10.00.

If any of you are interested in teaching a class please let Rehle know, I have had requests for beginning watercolor and figure drawings. Deanna graciously volunteered to teach the Senior Citizen class on January 23rd and February 6th. Thanks Deanna! If anyone else would be willing to provide the joy and appreciation that art has given you and share it in instruction, the rewards are immense! Please let us know what you are willing to do so that we can provide you with some assistance in the beginning.

I hope all of you received your prospectuses for the Spring Show and Sidewalk Art Festival. I hope you have all begun to work on your masterpieces because these are exciting events for sharing your works with the public.

Thank you for bringing your artwork to hang in the gallery for the month of January and thank you Neil Burrell for hanging it! There will be a hanging of our permanent collection beginning on February 8 until February 15th if you have never seen the permanent collection you will not want to miss it!

Thanks to Richard Large who set up an activity with the scouts on the 21st of January, there was a total of 19 scouts who were able to receive their art merit badge due to this activity and it was a lot of fun for all who were involved!

Thanks to all of the members, board, and past board because if it wasn't for all of you the success of this organization wouldn't be possible! I would personally like to thank Donna for helping me out with our Facebook account. Don't forget to look for our new account under the Eagle Rock Art Guild, Inc on Facebook!

We have scheduled a membership meeting for March 11th at 7:00pm. Please put the meeting on your calendar because I personally (as well as others) would love to see you there!

Many Thanks and Happy Times Always, Kamber

MEMBERSHIP COORDINATOR

Neil Burrell is our new membership coordinator. If you know of people that are interested in the guild please let him know so we can see about getting them to join the guild. If you would like to help Neil and have ideas on growing the guild give him a call. I know he would love to hear from you .

For information contact Neil at: 522-8122

Happy Birthday to Ole Smith February 20th and Charlotte Moroney February 24th

Bank of Idaho Show

The Bank of Idaho Show will be held at ERAG beginning on Tuesday, February 25th from 11:00am to 5:00pm and will run through Friday, March 8th.

The reception will be held Saturday, March 1st from 1:00pm to 4:00pm in the school cafeteria.

Please come out and support these kids. They create some beautiful artwork and enjoy having the opportunity to show their talent to the public.

Helen Aupperle Show

The Helen Aupperle Show will open on Tuesday, March 25th and run through Friday, April 5th. The reception will be Saturday, March 29th from 1:00pm to 4:00pm. Last year we had a great turnout for this show. Lets make that happen again this year. The seniors enjoy this opportunity and love showing of their artwork.

ART GUILD ON FACEBOOK

We now have a facebook page. If you or anyone you know is interested in the guild please invite them to friend us on facebook. This is a great tool for promoting the Guild as well as your own art events and artwork. Make sure you go to the new facebook page Eagle Rock Art Guild, Inc, instead of the older Eagle Rock Art Guild (we're unable to access that account and apologize for that.)

2014 Art Guild Directory

The new Guild directory will be finished by the March 11th members meeting. You can pick up your copy at the meeting as well as copies being available at the Art Guild during gallery hours.

If you would like to put an ad in the directory it will offer you a great marketing opportunity as it will be distributed throughout the valley to places such as the Arts Council, Chamber of Commerce, The Museum of Idaho and various other art related businesses. The cost is $25 for 1/2 page B&W or $35 for color. The cost for a full page is $50 B&W and $70 for color. If you are interested contact Kamber or any board member by February 14th.

BOARD AND MEMBER MEETINGS

Board meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month at 6:00pm.

Member meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00pm , when announced.

CHILDREN'S CLASSES

We had a good turnout for the kids class January 11th. For the beginning class ages 5-8 there were about ten kids. We made our artist's portfolios and did an exercise in line drawings even though this is very similar to the first class we had last year, there is always new art with new insight. As for ages 9-12 we had a couple of newcomers to our class so our class consisted of seven kids (two of which were accounted for in the first art class. They just like to stay). We made our artist's portfolios and worked on self portraits in which I allow them to be interpreted by the kids with some guidance in proportion if they choose. All in all the kids always enjoy creating, making friends and hanging out (kind of like the adults). The next class will be Saturday, February 8th. For ages five to eight I have an exercise in shapes and for ages nine to twelve we will be doing an exercise in values/hues through monochrome. As always it is super fun and there is never a dull moment so I hope to see all the usual crowd and new youngsters there.

Thank you Kamber for the fantastic job you are doing with the children's classes.

SENIOR CITIZEN CLASSES

Senior classes are sponsored by the Art Guild in support of our community. Classes are held on the 1st & 4th Thursdays of each month, 12:30 to 3:00 pm at the senior center. Classes are free to anyone over 60. A small donation of $2.00 is asked to help cover costs. To attend, call 522-4357 before 2:00 pm Wednesdays for Thursday's classes. Class limit is 12.

Drusilla Homer has retired as our instructor so we need instructors to teach the Senior's classes. If you can please take over as their instructor or can even do one or two of the classes it would be greatly appreciated. This is one position we really need filled so our Senior Citizens can keep having classes. They very much enjoy them and would be very disappointed if we can't provide them.

If you can help out please contact any of the board members or officers as soon as possible. Thank you

Eagle Rock Art Guild Spring Show

Our Annual Spring show will be held at EITC. Deliver your work Friday, April 11th from 3:00 to 5:00pm. The show begins Monday, April 14th from 8:00am to 5:pm. The reception will be held Saturday April 19th from 1:00pm to 4:00pm in the EITC cafeteria. The show ends Friday, April 25th at 3:00pm. You can pick up your work from 3:00pm to 5:00pm at the end of the show.

For information contact: Charlotte at 522-6955

Fundraiser

Silent Auction Baskets

Please donate a basket to the guild on February 19 & 20 to be auctioned during the Bank of Idaho Show. We will limit the number of baskets to 12 and the value of contents should be at least $50. If you and someone else who wants to partner to share the cost and provide a theme to your basket, it would be much appreciated and every little chance we get to work together is a good chance to have fun!

Thanks Again every donation counts!

Newsletter deadline February 25th; contact Roger at rogerb.fb@gmail.com

Please pick up your artwork

Everyone's artwork at the gallery needs to be picked up no later than Saturday, February 8th

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We need volunteers for many positions this year, Chair persons, docents, fund raising, Senior classes, Multiple show chairmen and helpers of all kinds. Please volunteer. Our Guild will only succeed with your help.

If you can help please contact any Guild officer or board member

Thank you
